Craighead County Resolution
2023 - 18

COUNTY & PROBATE COURT CLERK

WHEREAS improved highway infrastructure has been a major priority for Jonesboro, Craighead County and northeast Arkansas for many years;

WHEREAS John Michael Cameron has been a leading advocate for highway improvements in northeast Arkansas for almost 50 years having served on both the Jonesboro Regional Chamber of Commerce for over 30 years, and as a founding board member of East Arkansas Good Roads, and its predecessor, Northeast Arkansas Good Roads for over 25 years;

WHEREAS, during this time, Mr. Cameron's contribution of his time, energy and resources were instrumental in securing federal and state funding for highway projects connecting Craighead County to I-55 with a four-lane interstate grade highway, later becoming I-555 and to U.S. Highway 67 via an improved four-lane Arkansas Highway 226; and

WHEREAS, Craighead County wishes to express its appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Cameron for his long-time service improving highway travel for the community, county, and region.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Quorum Court of Craighead County hereby requests the Arkansas State Highway Commission to recognize John Michael Cameron's lifetime commitment to improved highway infrastructure by naming the Arkansas Highway 226 Railroad Overpass in his honor as the "John Michael Cameron Overpass".

THIS RESOLUTION is hereby adopted by the Quorum Court of Craighead County, Arkansas, on this 10th day of July, 2023.
