Announcements:

Judge Day first stated that the budget is getting wrapped up. He wants to look at it and whittle it a little bit more before sending it out. Judge Day said he would just email it out for everyone to look at when he is finished, and it can be discussed at our next meeting. Second, Judge Day wanted to recognize a couple of High School Seniors that are attending the meeting for their AP Government class to observe what local government looks like. Lastly, Judge Day wanted to express wishes and thoughts for Sheriff Boyd's passing of his mother. We are praying the best for him and his family.
